16-year-old maybe not so sweet!

Antioch Police Chief Chuck Miller said that his department had solved three residential burglaries committed in the village last week.

According to Miller a 16-year-old girl has been turned over to juvenile authorities after being arrested for the three burglaries.

A neighbor noticed the girl, who was jogging, tampering with a home that had no one at home and called the police.

Lt. Tom Fisher and an officer apprehended the teenager and articles, later identified as having been taken from the house, were found on her person.

The girl, after being questioned, admitted to two more home burglaries, one which had not been reported the police.

The girl then turned over more jewelry, cameras and money that she had stolen from these two homes.

Miller again urged victims to report crimes to the police.

Sequoits sweep three for final NWSC crown

With their ultimate goal of a conference championship in sight, the Antioch High School Sequoit baseball team swept through its final three opponents to clinch the Northwest Suburban Conference crown.

The Sequoits easily breezed through a double header with Grayslake on May 18. The first game was won by the Sequoits, 10-2, with the nightcap a similar rout, 14-2.

The final test in Fox Lake against Grant proved the Sequoits deserved to be conference champs as they defeated Grant in a hard-fought game, 3-0.

This will be the Sequoits' final year in the Northwest Suburban Conference as Antioch and Warren move to the North Suburban next season.

District 34 teachers ratify 83-84 contract

by GLORIA DAVIS

The teachers of Antioch Grade School Dist. 34 ratified the contract offered to them by the grade school board on Thursday, May 19. The board is expected to ratify the contract at its next board meeting on June 21.

It took only four negotiation meetings to come to this agreement with Bruce Jablonski leading the negotiations for the school and new teachers' union president, Dave Rogowski heading the teachers' bargaining representatives.

This quick agreement may have come as a surprise to those who had expected more teacher opposition based on the controversy led by then Union President Peg Zurek, last fall.

The heavy disagreement came when the teachers found that non-staff employees had received a higher percentage raise than they.

Another highlight of the board meeting on Tuesday, May 17, was the appearance of the teachers who are conducting the annual environmental field trip at Camp Timber-Lee.

Debbie Dankel, science department head gave a thorough outline of the planned four-day trip, to cost less than $900. The board approved the proposal.

Other approvals made by the board included okaying the FY84 gifted application in the amount of $5,846. Materials will be paid

ACHS students at Science Fair

Nearly 300 science students from 13 high schools in Lake County attended one of three Science Students' Days held at Abbott Laboratories' North Chicago facilities on April 25, 26 and 27.

The science days are sponsored annually by Abbott to give students a close-up view of science in industry and to encourage those with an interest in science as a career.

A highlight of each day's activities was announcement of the winner in an essay contest conducted earlier by the 13 participating schools. Each of the three winners received a $50 savings bond.

On April 25, students from Barrington, Deerfield, and Grayslake High Schools participated in the Science Students' Days. The essay contest winner from this group was Maggie Nguyen, a senior at Grayslake High School.

In the April 26 group were Grant, Round Lake, Stevenson and Waukegan East and West High Schools. Ethan Grant, a sophomore at Waukegan East, was the essay contest winner in this group.

On April 27 students from Antioch, Libertyville, Warren Township and Zion-Benton High Schools and Woodlands Academy participated in the program. Michelle Soudier, a junior at Warren Township High School in Gurnee, was the winner in this group.

Students had a choice of six science-related subjects on which to write. Each school submitted the paper it judged best among those completed. The three winning essays were chosen by a panel of Abbott scientists.

Commenting on the company's sponsorship of the Science Days, William Krueger, director of personnel for Abbott's Lake County operations, said, "Inviting high school students to visit our facilities gives us a chance to help tomorrow's scientists get a closer look at the opportunities science affords. Science is playing an increasingly important role in our lives and will continue to do so in the future. Our young people need all the help and encouragement we can give in preparing for the challenges that science can offer them."

Lake County, he pointed out, has one of the largest concentrations of scientific industry, particularly in the health-care field, in the entire country.

"We are happy," he said, "to have local students come to Abbott so that they can see the practical side of science."

Purple Martins back in Antioch

Just like the swallows that return to Cappastrano, so have the purple martins returned to northern Illinois, and more specifically, on April 13, in Antioch, according to Maryanne Kaht, member of the Illinois Audubon Society.

The purple martin is the largest member of the swallow family that daily consumes its weight in insects, predominately mosquitos. Kaht reports two important factors necessary to attract purple martins: location of the bird house and sparrow control.

The Lake and McHenry county chapters of the Illinois Audubon Society have also been involved in a project to promote the return of the eastern bluebird.

These cavity nesting birds which have been on the endangered species list have fledged 50 young throughout our area during 1982.

Anyone interested in information about attracting purple martins in your backyard or saving the eastern bluebird, please call Kaht at (312) 395-1898.

Q: What makes gums recede? What can be done about it?

A: Receding Gums can be caused by at least 110 different factors or any combination of these. The most common are neglect, improper care (plaque and calculus), crooked teeth and bad bite (malocclusion and trauma), and poor nutrition.

Receding gums or gingival recession exposes the tooth's root surface and occurs when the margin of the gum shifts above or below the normal gum line. This exposed root surface increases the possibility of developing dental caries (cavities), makes the tooth more sensitive and, depending on the individual mouth, can affect personal appearance.

Treatment for receding gums is determined by which teeth are involved, the patient's age, condition of the mouth, effect on appearance, presence of root sensitivity or cavities.

No fits in 'Fittin Room'

Depression figures in to female figure's loss

by GLORIA DAVIS

Nancy Mendrala, wife of the owner of Antioch Drugs, Bill Mendrala, not only vocally believes in the preservation of the femininity of the fairer sex but puts her business efforts where her mouth is.

It all started the day that a salesman for a breast prosthesis panicked her husband by asking him to feel the naturalness of that product. Bill yelled for Nancy and a new business was born.

Nancy, a registered nurse who had worked in cancer research, remembered how her heart had gone out to mastectomy patients when they were leaving the hospital after their operations.

"So many of them were actually disfigured by the poorly fitting artificial breasts they were wearing," said Nancy.

"When I saw the naturalness of the Nearly Me prosthesis, that comes from its perfect balance and silicone gel filling, I remembered those people and decided this was just what they needed," she said.

"You'd be surprised how many women suffer from back and neck aches because their body has been thrown off balance," she added, underlying the great ego blow suffered by the virtual loss of the coveted female shape.

"Many of these women are too shy to talk about their problem and don't know where to go for the proper solving of it," Nancy said.

"Lots of times they have a box containing an ill-fitting artificial gland shoved at them and are left to their own devices because people seem afraid to help with this intimate problem," she added.

"Often these women need someone to talk to just as much as a better product," Nancy said.

So with her expertise at fitting artificial breasts, along with her private new "Fittin Room," Nancy is out to offer "a service very much needed in this area by a surprising amount of women of all ages."

Even fairly young women have a need for this service and one was especially thrilled when she found out the natural fit and balance of a Nearly Me prosthesis would allow her to wear tube tops and "have the stripes go straight across her bodice."

One of Nancy's customers was a 79-year-old woman who still wanted to be proud of her figure.

"Nearly Me" helps women feel good about themselves after the trauma of this kind of operation reported Nancy.

The idea of the Mattel toymakers and the baby of cancer victim herself, Ruth Handler, this may be the latest break-through allowing women to keep pride in their femininity.

Nancy will make house calls for those that need them.

New downtown committee needs community members

The Antioch Downtown Revitalization and Economic Development Committee is seeking two members of the community to round out its eight member team.

The committee, which held its first meeting earlier this month, will be a working committee seeking to improve the downtown shopping area.

Committee members include Dan Dreyer, president of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry and owner of Awards by Kaydan; Bill Brook, State Bank of Antioch; Jeff Mulder, 1st National Bank of Antioch; Dick Paddock, The Advertiser; Laddie Korecek, Woodland Investment Co., Gurnee; Bill Patterson, BJ's Fashions For Men; Robert Wilton and Mabel Lou Weber, trustees on the Antioch Village Board.

"We have to consider the consumer and the public," Dreyer said. "We want the input from the public, we want to know how they feel downtown Antioch can be improved."

Dreyer added that committee members will be expected to be working members. "We're not just going to sit there and talk. We're going to get out there and make improvements. We will start out small, but the projects we start we will follow through on."

Dreyer said the committee would especially welcome female members, "because 80 percent of the disposable income in the United States is spent by women."

Anyone interested in joining the committee can contact Dreyer at (312) 395-2900. The next meeting of the committee is on Thursday, June 2 at the State Bank of Antioch. "We'd like to have all our members at that meeting," he said. "But even if someone isn't interested in joining the committee, but has some suggestion or ideas, we will welcome the information."

He expects that the committee will meet monthly, or as often as projects warrant. "There are a lot of problems to solve, and we need the community's support," he said.

Subjects to be tackled in the coming months include parking, beautification, storefront revitalization and standardized store hours, to name a few.

"This type of committee has proven successful in other communities, and we believe we can do the same in Antioch," Dreyer said.

Support falling short for solid waste board

Municipalities, townships and private industry in Lake County have contributed more than $18,000 for the development of a county-wide solid waste management plan.

For more information about the solid waste work program or for details concerning the May 25 meeting, call Jeanne Becker at (312) 689-6350.

On the agenda is a report on public and private sector endorsement of the program, of the first draft of a solid waste legislation report and appointment of a subcommittee for legislative review.

This is approximately one-third of the $55,000 goal set by the County Board for local public and private sector contributions. At its February meeting, the County Board committed $145,000 towards the solid waste work program, estimated to cost $200,000.

The goal of the 18 month work program is to develop a long term solution for the disposal of Lake County's residential, commercial and industrial waste. Recycling waste-to-energy facilities and co-disposal are some of the alternatives being considered by the Solid Waste Advisory Committee.

The following municipalities and townships have endorsed the solid waste program and have made a financial commitment for its development: Antioch, Deerfield, Fox Lake, Lake Zurich, Libertyville, Lincolnshire, Lindenhurst, Long Grove, Mundelein, Round Lake, Winthrop Harbor, Zion, Avon Township, Grant Township, and Warren Township.

The next meeting of the Solid Waste Advisory Committee is scheduled for Wednesday, May 25, at 7:30 p.m. in the 10th floor Assembly Room of the County Building in Waukegan. The meeting is open to the public.

The Time Machine

FIFTY YEARS AGO: May 25, 1933

The merchants and amusement place owners in the Antioch area were preparing for the influx of summer patrons slated to start on Memorial Day.

The possibility of Antioch losing Mail Route 3 was expected to draw a large gathering at a meeting called by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce. The main worry was that the loss of this route to Lake Villa would result in the loss of patronage for the Antioch Post office which might reduce it to a third class post office.

Father Francis F. Flaherty of St. Peters presided over the program at the Antioch High School graduation.

A new Thor wringer-washing machine was advertised to sell for $37.50.

THIRTY YEARS AGO: May 28, 1953

Blanche Horton was elected senior regent of the Women of the Moose, Antioch Chapter.

Robert Wilton Sr. and Edmund Voss served as co-chairmen of a committee to raise money for a planned $1 million addition to Victory Memorial Hospital in Waukegan.

Anthony Stanich, owner of King's Drug Store, made a 210-yard hole in one at Hunter Golf Course, Richmond.

A report in the News said that more babies were born in the United States in 1952 than any previous year in U. S. History.

Joanne Quilty and Wendy Midgley entered the Legion Carnival Queen Contest.

Ronald Peters of Channel Lake was stationed with the U. S. Navy Seabees in Guam.

TEN YEARS AGO: May 23, 1973

A bill to establish branch baking in the state was defeated in the Illinois Senate.

Lois Giest was selected by the Antioch American Legion Auxiliary as the Illini Girl's Stater.

Diana Larson and John Mueller had a double wedding with John's brother Tom the other groom.

Mrs. George Olisar took over the ownership of the Little Gallery Card Shop on Main St. from Edna Radke.

"The Paisley Convertible" was slated to play next at the PM&L Theater, starring Donna mascari, Dick Dyer, Lou Jones, Lillian Allen and Pam Hill.

Sue Rigby was installed as Worthy Advisor of Antioch's Rainbow Girls.

The expansion of the sewage treatment plant was again discussed at the Antioch Village Board meeting.

Stage review

Reviewer reports kid theft at Andres' luncheon show

by GLORIA DAVIS

A summer theatrical offering, not to be found many places in Lake County, is now being being shown on Wednesday afternoons at Andres Steak House in Richmond.

It is a luncheon-theater which features this season, Neil Simon and a family style lunch, all in one package. The restaurant is also offering special bookings of any of the three Simon plays to be performed.

The opening Simon comedy, "I Oughta Be In Pictures," has a small cast of three, each with a large acting talent. Stealing the show is Carol Skalany as Libby, a 19-year-old who hitchhikes from New York to California to see a father who deserted the family several years ago.

Her well done Bronx accent, piquant stage ease and good timing, bring Libby close to your heart.

Ron Farraro is a most believable errant father, his comfortable naturalness being the most enjoyable part of his excellent performance.

Yvonne Alton, who always does well and looks even better on our local stages, is a good Steffy, father's paramour, though sometimes she seems slightly too philosophical and high faluttin' for the likes of a slipping Hollywood writer.

The luncheon is a hearty one and the play even richer in laughs and just enough pathos.

Andres has changed its theater's style by using a theater-in-the-square format, wherein the stage is centered and the audience angularly surrounds it.

Ceiling spots illuminate the stage and turning them on and off serves as the curtain's rise and fall.

Therein lies an irritation for some isolated members of the audience since, in a very few spots, the audience is forced to look directly into these spots, giving the actors a silhouetted look.

The entire idea totals up to a nice way to spend a free summer afternoon.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Nancy and Bill Mendrala of Antioch Drugs have many things in stock not to be found in chain drugstores.

The store is now carrying a variety of handmade items made in the big A, not only made in America but in Antioch.

Standouts are the fine porcelain jewelry boxes and jewelry and the hand carved toys, all by the way at very reasonable prices.

Oops! Sorry, old Annie Mae made a mistake in reporting that Ken Smouse was having a heart transplant (shades of all the Barney Clark publicity). It was a heart by-pass. Reports have Ken coming through with flying colors as he usually does.

His students friends and fellow thespians repeat in urging him to get well quickly.

I went to the honors assembly at Antioch High School. It was good to have the fact that there are more good hard working teens than bad one reaffirmed.

Congrats to Darla Langosch who has proven that women are capable of being big business tycoons. Darla, who maintained a straight A average all four years at Antioch High School, took first place in district in typing and first place in state in personal banking.

Tim Osmond tells me that he had moved the Osmond Insurance Agency to 976 Hillside Ave.

I hear that the newly remodeled offices are as up-to-date as you can get, complete with all kinds of automation and computers to improve their insurance dealings.

Here's one a lot of parents might be interested in. At 7 p.m., on Monday, May 23, at Waukegan East high School, Dennis Murstien of Illinois Collaboration on Youth, and Don Horn from the Lake County Probation Dept., will be the speakers at a meeting sponsored by the Waukegan Toughlove Parent Support Group.

The Antioch area had an old friend visit last week when John McCabe was in town visiting the Tom Furlans. McCabe, who used to live in Antioch, was a basketball standout at Grant High School and formerly owned the Waterhole Tavern on Rte. 83. He is presently living in Palm Springs, Cal.

At one time in Europe, special New Year's cakes in the form of a boar were made from the first sheaf cut at the last harvest.

The Sequoits began their final march to what could be the only time a team has taken the NWSC championship two years in a row, with a double header against Grayslake on Wednesday, May 18.

Antioch took the first game, 10-2, with Vince Gawrecki pitching the win, making him 6-1 for the season. Gawrecki did it with nine strikeouts and three walks.

Big guns at the plate for Antioch included Lester Zitkus who hit a double, a single and a homerun, bringing in three; Craig Prather had two singles, one homer, making it four RBIs for him; John Mahar had a double and a single and Frank Mahar had a base hit and one RBI.

Antioch put this one away in the first, starting with John Humphreys' base hit followed by Zitkus' double, bringing Humphreys in.

Prather's base hit pulled Zitkus home and Jerry Haling hit a one bagger that scored Prather. The Sequoits had seven runs in the first two innings.

In the second game, Antioch again trounced the Rams, this time 14-4. The winning moundman was Humphreys who went the distance with two strikeouts, walking one until the game was called because of darkness after five innings.

The Sequoits had five runs in the first and eight runs in the second inning to take over the scoring from the beginning of the game.

John Silanoff had a single, a double and two RBIs; Humphreys had three singles and one RBI and Gawrecki had two singles and one RBI.

Antioch played its final game in regular conference play on Saturday, May 21, against Grant at Grant.

for by $1,200 and most of the rest will be used to pay teacher increments.

Skidmore recommended and the board approved the 94-142 grant application in the amount of $36,043 which will cover the salary and fringe benefits for two learning disabilities (LD) teachers, one LD aid and the salary and fringe benefits of one speech therapist.

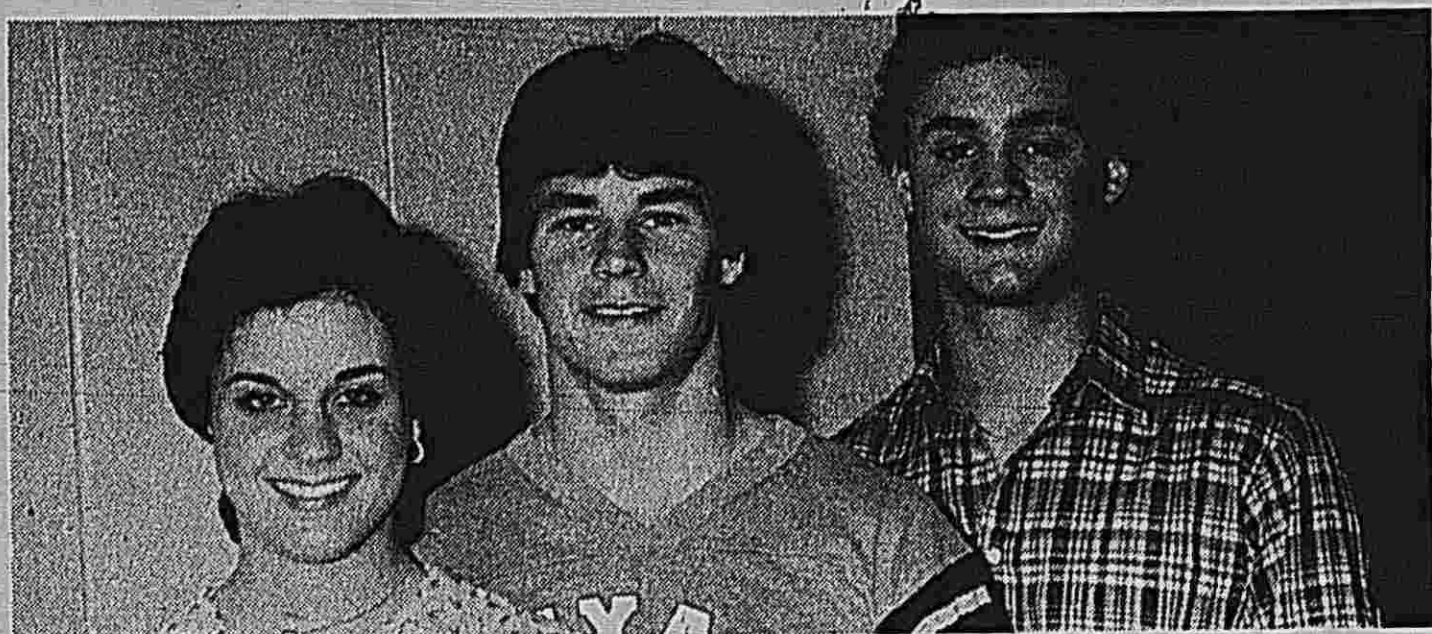

The board also decided to give an experimental try at servicing 10 buses from Richmond High School. Skidmore, who would like the arrangement to be permanent, said the rates charged for this will result in the school being able to save district tax payers money because it will allow a write-off of some heating, lighting and labor costs which will enable the district to keep its garage open longer hours.

The board also heard that the 1982 equalized assessed evaluation is $107,930,756, just $570,782 more than 1981 or an increase of .5 percent. This is the smallest increase in the last 10 years and it will mean that the district will receive $14,000 in new revenue locally and an increase in state aid for the 1984-85 school year.

Skidmore warned that the balances will reflect a decrease this year followed by an increase the following year.

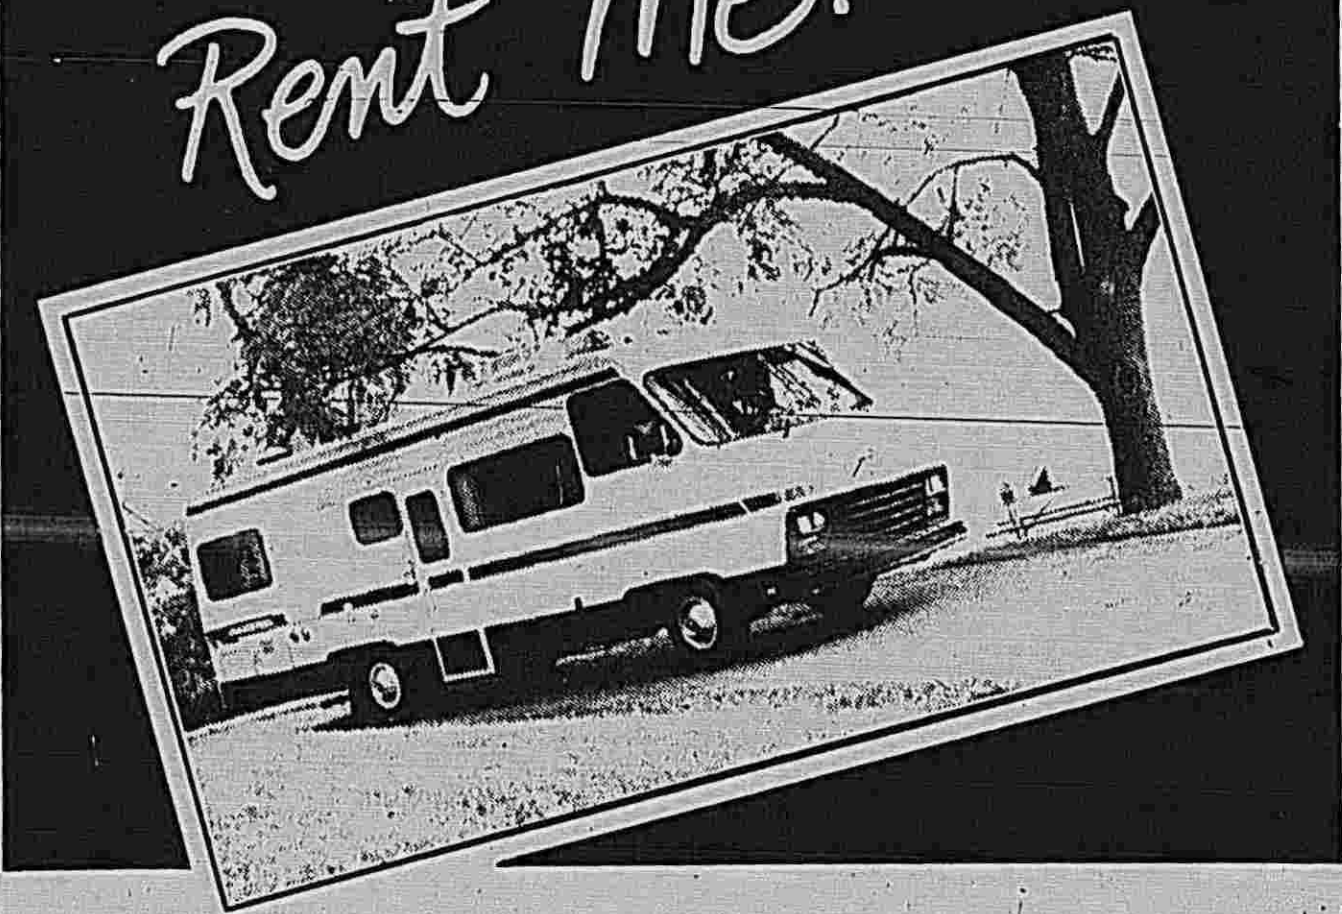

"It will mean we will have to guard our pennies for the year," Skidmore told the board.

Final motions approved were the appointment of Janice Pfarr to the office of school treasurer at an annual salary of $1,400 and a bond of $1 million at an annual cost of $197 and the FY84 grant application which included a budget of $16,571.80 for paying the district's title one teacher.

OUTSTANDING SENIORS — Honored as outstanding seniors were, from left, Sigrid Ferstl, outstanding senior girl, Antioch Women's Club Award and American Legion Award; Craig Sheedlo, outstanding citizen, Daughters and Sons of American Revolution Award and Derek Olsen, outstanding senior boy, women's club and legion. Awards were received at honors assembly at Antioch High School on Thursday, May 19. — Photo by Gloria Davis

Antioch Lions sponsor annual sports banquet

The Antioch Lions Club is sponsoring the Athletic Banquet at Antioch Community High School on Monday, May 23.

This is the 42nd banquet sponsored by the local club. The banquet is to honor the senior boy and girl athletes, as well as the senior cheerleaders, pom-pom, color guard, senior marching band members, most valuable athletes and individual State qualifiers in 17 sport areas. The dinner will be at 7 p.m. in the cafeteria.

The senior athletes and special invited groups and their coaches and sponsors will be guests of the club. Each teen guest is encouraged to bring a father, a mother or an adult guest. The club would like to limit the adult guest to one since there will be limited seating. Tickets will be at the door at a cost of $6.

The Lions Club and guests will hear William Mallory, varsity football coach at Northern Illinois University. Bill is from the celebrated "Cradle of Coaches" fraternity, Miami of Ohio. The Mallory background reads like a Who's Who of Football. A 1980 inductee into Miami University Athletic Hall of Fame, he made his first steps on the grid ladder for the Redskins in more ways than one.

Owner of an 84-45-1 record, he developed into one of the country's winningest coaches during a five year stint at Miami and a five year stay at the University of Colorado. His teams have appeared in three Bowls, Tangerine (73), Bluebonnet (75) and Orange (77). Mallory's Miami Eleven are legends. The Redskins compile a 39-12-0 record during his regime.

Electric costs to lower

Commonwealth Edison Co. announced a fuel adjustment credit for its customers for the eighth straight month. This amounts to an eight-month savings of $5.42 for a typical residential customer living in Chicago using 500 kilowatt-hours of electricity per month. A residential customer outside the city using 500 kwh saved $5.21 during the same period. Edison officials attribute the credits to reduced fuel costs made possible by the extensive use of low-cost nuclear fuel. Coal, which is the company's next most economical fuel, is four to five times as expensive.

Antioch Moose women have a busy spring

The Antioch Chapter of the Women of the Moose have been very busy for the last two months.

In March, 19 co-workers participated in the Cardio-Pulmonary-Resuscitation program sponsored by the Antioch Rescue Squad. Those taking part in the program not only learned life saving lessons, but were also very impressed with the way the squad members teach the lessons in a very professional, yet understanding method.

At the March chapter meeting, five new co-workers joined the defending circle of the Women of the Moose. They were Julie Tipler sponsored by Bobbie Knackstedt, Jeanenne Westbrook, sponsored by Mavis Dingsdale, Eileen Maginot, sponsored by Rene Clevon, Rosemarie Ingolia sponsored by Louise Gutowski, and Toni Dickson sponsored by Veronica Gahlbeck.

These new members were enrolled in honor of Chairman Jean Van Zandt and the Moose Haven Committee.

In April, Kathy Lubkeman was enrolled as a new member, and was sponsored by Judy Page, along with Margie Turner sponsored by Caroline Procknow. Ut Thi Templin was reinstated as a member of the Antioch chapter.

At the April Chapter meeting the award of achievement was awarded to Junior Graduate Regent Terry Smallwood, signifying her successful year as Senior Regent in 1982-83.

On Psalm Sunday, 10 members received their Academy of Friendship degree at Mooseheart. They were: Caroline Procknow, Virginia Flood, Marge Muse, Helen Hoselton, Christine Wilcox, Mavis Dingsdale, Veronica Gahlbeck, Patricia Sterling, Alice Mellon and Eleanor Walsh. After the trip to Mooseheart, the 10 new members plus the co-workers that accompanied them on the bus trip enjoyed a delicious dinner at Wellington's on Deep Lake.

The Mother's Day Omelette Bubbly Breakfast and Bake Sale, sponsored by the officers of the Women of the Moose was very successful and the breakfasts will probably be carried on during the summer.

Senior Regent Marge Hansen announced that the honorary dinner will be held on Wednesday, May 18. Chief Cook, Dick Stroner and his able crew will be serving the ladies on their special nite.

The Women of the Moose would like to congratulate Antioch Team 1 of the Third Dist. Bowling League for winning second place in the district.

The team consisted of Joe Gutowski, Jeff Gutowski, Jim Gutowski, Jim Portalski, Grant Jorgansen, and 6th man, Lou Portalski. The team lost to the Harvard team by one point!

Aglow propagates Christ

Members of Women's Aglow Fellowship strongly believe in the power of God to answer prayer. In response to the heart cry of four Christian women, the fellowships have grown to more than 2,000 chapters, located in 41 different countries, spanning five continents.

Emerging in the Chicago suburbs during the past 10 years, Women's Aglow has attracted Christian Women from many different denominations.

Today, Aglow has four chapters in the city of Chicago, nine in the southern suburbs and 11 in the northwest suburbs, which include a chapter in Waukegan and an Antioch Chapter.

The Antioch Women's Aglow started in September of '82. The groups President

Lorie Link originally had a women's Bible study in her home and then expanded into a Aglow Chapter when the area boards Vice President Kitty Debates, one of the original founders encouraged her to do so.

The groups goal is to reach the communities women with the Love of Jesus Christ. They want all to feel welcome. They want to pray with you and let you know someone really cares. The group has interesting speakers every month.

It meets the first Thursday of every month, at 7:30 p.m., at the Antioch State Bank.

Summer drivers ed is new program

Antioch Community High School Dist. residents between the ages of 15 and one-half and 21 are eligible for the summer driver education program. The only cost to the student is $20 for a permit/license.

The complete integrated course is being offered starting Tuesday, June 14 and completing on Friday, July 29.

Students at the high school and other district residents between the ages of 15 and one-half and 21 may enroll by reporting to the driver education/athletic office in the gym foyer between 8 a.m.-4 p.m. before June 2.

All those enrolling must complete the application data sheet and receive the rules and regulations in order that state materials may be processed.

Students planning on going to camp or vacation between June 14 and July 29 should not enroll. Since the program is state sponsored, specific hours and minimum requirements must be met.

The driver education course at Antioch is an integrated program consisting of 33 hours of classroom, 12 hours of simulation, three and one-half hours of on-the-street driving, and three and one-half hours of observation.

The behind-the-wheel instruction is given in late model cars furnished by two of our local dealers.

The on-the-street instruction is completed on the school lots, our local streets, county and state highways, as well as nearby expressways. The cars in the program are furnished by Lyons-Ryan Ford and Raymond's Chevy-Olds.

The community owes a "big thank you" to these two fine local dealers for helping with the education of our young people.

Enrollment will close June 2. If interested, report to the driver education/athletic office between 8 a.m.-4 p.m., Monday through Friday, before June 2.

Board votes to replace asbestos tile at ACHS

Antioch Community High School will have to spend $86,935 to replace asbestos tile with acoustic tile in ceilings of the high school building.

The board voted to accept the low bid of Asbestos Control, Mt. Prospect, to remove the acoustical plaster on ceilings which contain friable asbestos and Airtite Co., Chicago, will replace the ceilings with acoustic tile. The project is necessitated by life-safety requirements by state and local governments, with total cost of the project to be $86,935.

Summer school will begin Thursday, June 16 and continue through July 29. Tuition this year will be $44 per semester of credit, the amount required for summer school to be self-contained. Summer school isn't supported by state funds, according to director of curriculum Gary Allen.

Antioch Community High School will also be the site of 24 evening courses to be offered by the College of Lake County for the fall semester.

In other action, the board heard that the staff recognition tea will be held Wednesday, June 1 at 2:45 p.m. Special recognition will be given to Jane Craner, art teacher and Lucien McLean, social studies teacher. They are both retiring at the end of the school year.

Sentencing of Barnes reset to June 23

According to Lake County Assistant States Atty. Matt Chancey, the sentencing of Scott Barnes, 29, Oak Lawn, was continued on Friday, May 20, and set for Thursday, June 23.

Chancey said that Barnes now has a new well known lawyer, William Hart from Chicago.

Hart is expected to file the usual post trial motions that might charge errors in Barnes' trial bringing up the possibility of a request for a new trial.

If these motions are denied, Hart may try for an appeal during which Barnes could be released by paying an appeal bond.

Barnes has been out on bond since shortly after the vehicle he was driving struck a car driven by Mary Carney, 41, of Antioch.

Carney was pronounced dead at the scene of the accident on Nov. 18. Barnes was found guilty of reckless homicide and driving while under the influence of alcohol by a Lake County jury on April 15.

Although he failed the blood-alcohol test taken at the accident scene, Barnes' chief defense was that he was a narcoleptic and had suffered an attack shortly before the crash.
